The body of Cleveland Butler was entered in the Dover cemetery Friday, April 25. Several weeks ago he was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Louise Gabbert, at Ft. Madison, Iowa. He and his cousins, Otis and Ray Gabbert, with a friend, Samuel Moffard, were crossing the Mississippi river, when a storm came, their boat capsized and they were all thrown into the water. Mr. Moffard was the only one near the boat, the others were taken away by the merciless waves and were drowned almost instantly. Mr. Moffard was rescued a half hour later. Cleveland Butler was born March 17, 1891, and was drowned Friday, March 14, 1913, age nineteen years. His body was recovered Monday, April 21, 1913. He was a member of the Baptist church, a good christian boy and was well liked by all who knew him. He is survived by his widowed mother, Mrs. Carrie Butler, three sisters and five brothers.
